FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

“Drake Well Museum and Park Presents Something More Saturdays: Twining”

On Saturday, May 27, Drake Well Museum and Park and Friends of Drake Well, Inc. will present Something More Saturdays, a monthly program offering visitors unique and entertaining learning experiences not included in a typical visit to the museum. Scheduled on the last Saturday of every month, Something More Saturday programs are included in the museum’s regular admission fees. Groups can take advantage of the program’s Special Group Admission Rate. Purchase two adult tickets for $20.00 and receive three free youth tickets.

May’s Something More Saturday will feature the art of twining. Liza Stallsmith, an historic craft demonstrator, will show visitors how to weave twine into baskets and other functional pieces. Those who take part will have the opportunity to try their hand at this art form.

In addition, visitors will enjoy discovering the blacksmith’s role in the the oil region. The Oil Valley Blacksmith Association will hold demonstrations in the museum’s Blacksmith Shop from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m.

Located off Route 8 south of Titusville, Drake Well Museum and Park is open year round. Spring and summer hours are Tuesday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 5:00 p.m. Drake Well Museum and Park is administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission in partnership with Friends of Drake Well, Inc. and is part of the Pennsylvania Trails of History® (www.PATrailsOfHistory.com).

For more information about Something More Saturdays or other museum programs, visit www.drakewell.org, call (814) 827-2797, or find us on Facebook at Drake Well Museum.
