NEWS RELEASE FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

“Drake Well Museum and Park Presents Something More Saturday: Radio Santa”

On Saturday, November 24, Drake Well Museum and Park and the Friends of Drake Well, Inc. will present Something More Saturdays, a monthly program offering visitors unique and entertaining learning experiences not included in a typical visit to the museum. Scheduled on the last Saturday of every month, Something More Saturday programs are included in the museum's regular admission fees. This month, visitors can take advantage of the event's Special Holiday Admission Rate: one free adult per family.

November's Something More Saturday will focus on preparing for the upcoming holiday season. The program's main highlight will be the opportunity to radio the North Pole and speak with Santa and his elves. From 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., visitors of all ages will enjoy working with the Venango County ARES/RACES ham radio operators to contact Santa's Workshop and relay their holiday wishlists. The event will also include refreshments, games and holiday themed crafts. Visitors will be able to create winter decorations from recyclable items. Come learn about plastics and recycling while crafting a winter holiday decoration. All supplies are provided.

Carole E. Hall, author of the new book Oil Tales of the Early Days: Stories for Children, will also sign books from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. This wonderful collection of stories about the Oil Region's rich heritage is available for purchase at the Drake Well Museum Store for $14.99.

Located off Route 8 south of Titusville, Drake Well Museum and Park is open year round. Hours of operation are Tuesday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 5:00 p.m. Drake Well Museum and Park is administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission in partnership with Friends of Drake Well, Inc. and is part of the Pennsylvania Trails of History® (www.PATrailsofHistory.com).
