“Drake Well Museum and Park Presents Something More Saturday: Family Game Day!”

On Saturday, February 23, Drake Well Museum and Park and Friends of Drake Well, Inc. will present Something More Saturday, a monthly program offering visitors unique and entertaining learning experiences not included in a typical visit to the museum. Scheduled on the last Saturday of every month, Something More Saturday programs are included in the museum’s regular admission fees.

February’s Something More Saturday will be a gamer’s delight! Visitors will enjoy playing various games from the 19th through the 21st century. Come have fun with your family and friends or make a new friend while trying your hand at quoits or checkers. Up for a real challenge? Take a crack at the board game King Oil. If you play the right strategy and bring a little luck, you may just get crowned the museum’s King of Oil.

Drake Well Museum and Park has joined other museums across the country in Museums for All. This program enables low-income families to visit participating museums for a nominal fee of $2.00 per person with the presentation of an Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card and identification. This offer is for general admission only and excludes special programs or events.

Located off Route 8 south of Titusville, Drake Well Museum and Park is open year-round. Winter hours are Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 5:00 p.m. Drake Well Museum and Park is administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission in partnership with Friends of Drake Well, Inc. and is part of the Pennsylvania Trails of History® (www.PATrailsofHistory.com).
