“Drake Well Museum and Park Presents Something More Saturday: Love in the Oil Fields”

On Saturday, January 26, Drake Well Museum and Park and Friends of Drake Well, Inc. will present Something More Saturday, a monthly program offering visitors unique and entertaining learning experiences not included in a typical visit to the museum. Scheduled on the last Saturday of every month, Something More Saturday programs are included in the museum’s regular admission fees.

January’s Something More Saturday will feature a pre-Valentine’s Day celebration. Visitors will enjoy reading love letters from the museum’s archive. Written by some of the Oil Region’s most prominent historical figures, including Colonel Edwin Drake and his wife Laura, these letters tell the tale of how love flourished in the oil fields. Once inspired, visitors will have the opportunity to take up a quill and ink and pen their own 19th century-style love letter or to create a colorful valentine.

Located off Route 8 south of Titusville, Drake Well Museum and Park is open year round. Winter hours are Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 5:00 p.m. Drake Well Museum and Park is administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission in partnership with Friends of Drake Well, Inc. and is part of the Pennsylvania Trails of History® (www.PATrailsofHistory.com).

For more information about Something More Saturdays or other museum programs, visit www.drakewell.org, call (814) 827-2797 or find us on Facebook at Drake Well Museum.
