NEWS RELEASE FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

“Drake Well Museum and Park Presents Something More Saturdays: 19th Century Cooking”

On Saturday, June 11, Drake Well Museum and Park and Friends of Drake Well, Inc. will present Something More Saturdays, a monthly program offering visitors unique and entertaining learning experiences not included in a typical visit to the museum. Scheduled from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on the second Saturday of every month, Something More Saturday programs are included in the museum's regular admission fees. Groups can advantage of the program's Special Group Admission Rate. Purchase 2 adult tickets for $20.00 and receive 3 free youth tickets.

June's Something More Saturday will focus on cooking in Pennsylvania's early oil fields. Visitors will enjoy the sight and smells of an afternoon meal being prepared. Museum Educator, Sarah Goodman will demonstrate how simple meals were prepared without a hearth and full kitchen in the 19th century. Throughout the program, there will be demonstrations of the various stages of meal preparation. Ms. Goodman will answer visitors' questions from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Located off Route 8 south of Titusville, Drake Well Museum and Park is open year round. Spring and summer hours are Tuesday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 5:00 p.m. Drake Well Museum and Park is administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission in partnership with Friends of Drake Well, Inc. and is part of the Pennsylvania Trails of History® (www.PATrailsofHistory.com).
